

Fair Hill Environmental Foundation, Inc.

The Fair Hill Environmental Foundation, Inc. is a private non-profit natural history and environmental learning center serving students and adults from the Tri-State area of northeastern Maryland, southeastern Pennsylvania, and northern Delaware. Our mission is to promote responsible stewardship through an appreciation and understanding of our environment.

Fair Hill Nature Center provides environmental science classes to over 7,000 students in Cecil County and surrounding areas each year, and hosts programs for the public and popular summer camps.

University of Maryland Extension (UME) is a statewide, non-formal education system within the College of Agriculture and Natural Resources at the University of Maryland. The purpose of Extension is to educate people to help themselves by providing timely, research-based information through educational programs and materials in the areas of Agriculture and Life Sciences, Community Development, and Leadership. Extension faculty and researchers are based in offices in each county and Baltimore City.

It is the policy of the University of Maryland, Agriculture Experiment Station and University of Maryland Extension, that no person shall be subjected to discrimination on the grounds of race, color, gender, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, age, marital or parental status, or disability.

Sponsorship Invitation

Hosted by Fair Hill Nature Center & University of Maryland Extension

Saturday, May 14, 2011
10 am to 4 pm

Cecil County Fairgrounds, Ed Walls Activity Hall and Fair Hill Nature Center

Join us for the third annual GreenFest, an environmental festival that celebrates the many ways we can create a healthier home, community and planet. This year's GreenFest will feature:

- ✿ Exhibitors showcasing home and backyard green consumer products, alternative energy solutions, and green building designs that promote healthy homes.
- ✿ NEW this year! In-depth, hands-on workshops by invited speakers on sustainable landscaping, backyard gardening and food preservation.
- ✿ Family-oriented activities that encourage outdoor exploration and unstructured, creative play.

Proceeds from GreenFest will support the Fair Hill Nature Center's environmental education programming.

We invite you to be a part of this exciting and important event by becoming a sponsor. Details inside!
